CONSULTANCY SERVICES FOR CB-CCT PILOT PROGRAM

RE-ADVERTISEMENT OF REQUEST FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

1. The Government of the United Republic of Tanzania has received a Grant from the Rapid Social Response-Multi Donor Trust Fund (RSR-MDTF) - Grant No. TF010289 which is administered by the World Bank, towards the cost of the Community - Based Conditional Cash Transfer (CB-CCT) Pilot Program under the Tanzania Second Social Action Fund Project (TASAF II) and intends to apply part of the proceeds of this Grant to cover eligible payments towards payment of various consultancy services.

2. The objective of the Grant is to improve household practices and to engender sustainability of livelihoods of the current CB-CCT beneficiaries. The Grant focus on providing essential information on appropriate early childhood nutrition, education and health practices. Indicators will be: (i) increase in number of healthy children, and older people, (ii) reduction in number of infants and children who are underweight, (iii) increased participation in savings and economic activities, and (iv) enhanced social accountability.

   The Grant supports the enhancement of delivery of CB-CCT Pilot Program under TASAF II, TASAF will be able to enhance social accountability, savings, economic activities and delivery mechanisms and also implement the nutrition, education and health awareness interventions as part of the Pilot. After implementing the interventions, TASAF will gain relevant experience on how to enhance the cash transfer interventions. The lessons will also inform the preparation of TASAF III, which will focus on targeted productive social safety nets for poor households.
   In order to achieve the objective of this Grant, TASAF will undertake consultancy services with specific objectives as detailed below:
